SYNOD PRAYER FROM THE VATICAN

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we journey together as a "Church on the Way in this Synodal Process." Bless us with an openness to various voices and a fidelity to the One, Holy, Catholic, Apostolic Church. Help us to accept the challenge of ongoing conversion so as not to let sin lead to disorder, but rather teach us to accompany one another as we follow you on the synodal path. "The heart of the church's mission is prayer," and we make this prayer from our hearts so as to be drawn closer to you and to one another. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE LEGAL PROTECTION OF UNBORN CHILDREN

Over 64 million babies in the United States have been lost as a result of Roe v. Wade: the January 22, 1973, Supreme Court decision legalizing abortion. The Church has designated that in all the Dioceses of the US, January 22 shall be observed as a particular day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion. www.respectlife.org

9 Days for Life Novena: 9 Days for Life is an annual novena for the protection of human life. Each day's intention is accompanied by a short reflection and suggested actions to help build a culture of life. The novena begins on January 19. Participants can download the novena or sign up to receive the daily prayers via email or text message. Sign up at 9DaysforLife.com.

How we pray should translate itself into how we live. Liturgists like to use the shorthand tag "lex orandi, lex agendi" or the rule of prayer leads to the rule of actions. Fr. Michael Driscoll explores the relationship between Eucharist and ethics, liturgy and life, and the declaration of the 2005 Synod on the Eucharist: "The Eucharist moves Christians to a commitment of justice in today's world..."

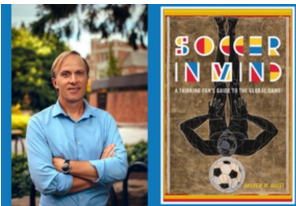

Fr. Michael Driscoll is a priest of the Diocese of Helena, a professor emeritus of Theology at Notre Dame, and the founding director of the Graduate Program in Sacred Music.

What do Chicken Nuggets™, MTV™, and smartphones have in common? A lot more than you think. UP's Dr. Anctil explains the paths humans travel as they invent and industrialize technologies to solve problems, but often create engagement gluttony in the process. He fears a future in which technology is cancerous—starting with benign, healthy cells and becoming a metastasized tumor that consumes everything it touches. With a sense of humor and an unblinking examination of everyday technologies, Dr. Anctil will provoke and inspire with a series of action items designed to help us seize control of the future, work to be the processors of our own experiences, and retreat from the gluttony of constant engagement.

Eric Anctil, PhD, is a professor of media and technology at the University of Portland. His work broadly centers on the nexus of media, technology, and humanity. Like many, Dr. Anctil is witnessing the world change in exciting and often frightening ways as he simultaneously worries and celebrates humans in a cosmically disordered world, largely of their own creation.

Book Launch with Andrew Guest Wednesday, January 26 at 4:30pm
UP Bookstore

From the FIFA World Cup to pick-up games at your local park, soccer may compete only with religion as a universal cultural form. Many writers use soccer's global popularity to describe the game's winners and losers. In his book, Soccer in Mind, Dr. Andrew Guest, UP professor of psychological sciences, instead uses social science to explore how soccer intersects with culture, society, and the self. Drawing on stories and data, along with ideas from sociology, psychology, and across the social sciences, Dr. Guest provides readers with new ways of understanding fanaticism, identity, peak performance, globalization, talent development, and more.

Pastor's Message

Dear Friends:

I wanted to let all of you know about an exciting new development with our Confirmation Program. We decided a few months back to partner with St. Rose of Lima Parish and combine our two programs. On January 9 we had our first evening today with the parents and young people who are preparing for the Sacrament of Confirmation from both parishes.

I want to thank Meaghen Igloria, our D.R.E., for all the creativity and hard work that she has put into forming our Confirmation Team, and for her openness to collaborating with the Confirmation Team of St. Rose of Lima. I believe that this could be a model for other parishes in our Vicariate to follow.

The members of the Confirmation Team from our parish are Meaghen Igloria, Sheri Lalangan, Megan Lehman, Miriam Martinez, and Jesus Montes. The members from St. Rose of Lima are Wally Waibel and Marianne Kelly. I am so grateful to all of them for their willingness to serve our young people in this way.

We had a lovely potluck dinner together in the school cafeteria to kick off the Confirmation Year together. Then we moved to the church for a brief orientation as to the meaning of the Sacrament of Confirmation and a review of practical matters.

We concluded our evening with a beautiful ceremony where the parents made the sign of the cross on their teen's forehead, ears, eyes, and hands. For the blessing of their foreheads, we prayed: "Receive the sign of the Cross on your forehead. It is Christ himself who strengthens you with this sign of His love. Seek to know Him more deeply and follow him." For the blessing of their ears, we prayed: "Receive the sign of the Cross on your ears, that you may hear the voice of the Lord." For the blessing of their eyes, we prayed, "Receive the sign of the Cross on your eyes, that you may see the glory of God." For the blessing of their hands, we prayed, "Receive the sign of the Cross on your hands, that Christ may be known in the work you do."

It all harkened back to their baptism when their parents first traced the sign of the Cross on their foreheads.

We pray for our Confirmation Team and for all of the young people in our Confirmation Program. May they come to know Christ in a new and powerful way, and truly feel the touch of the Holy Spirit when they are confirmed on April 29 at the Cathedral.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Pat
