HOLY REDEEMER'S SVDP CONFERENCE

"Giving help and hope one person at a time." A truly Christian enterprise! Meetings take place in the rectory on the second Tuesday of each month at 6:30 p.m. For more information, please contact board president Gordon Oliver oliver.svdp@gmail.com.

Our conference at Holy Redeemer seeks to reflect this Vincentian spirit through our rent and utility assistance program as well as a food pantry, all staffed and funded entirely through volunteers. Our pantry receives food from the parish as well as partner agencies such as the Oregon Food Bank, Safeway, and Nite Hawk Cafe & Lounge. Learn more at www.svdppdx.org.

FOOD PANTRY Do you have enough food for yourself or your family? Our pantry is located behind the church, we are open Wednesdays and Saturdays from 2:30 to 4:00 pm. Other food resources include the SVDP website at www.svdppdx.org and foodfinder.oregonfoodbank.org. SVDP is an equal opportunity provider and all requests are treated confidentially.

PANTRY REQUESTS: FRESH VEGETABLES AND FRUITS and LUNCH MEATS. Deliver donations during pantry hours on Wednesdays or Saturdays or use the shopping cart at the entrance to the church, or the rectory office or email Linda at lgoofus54@gmail.com to arrange a drop off time. With your help we can offer items that are otherwise difficult to obtain. Thank you!

RENT & UTILITIES ASSISTANCE FOR THOSE LIVING IN OUR PARISH BOUNDARIES Need help paying for rent or utilities? SVDP Holy Redeemer offers up to $750 in rent and $400 in utility assistance per year. To apply, call the SVDP Emergency Services Hotline at 503-235-8431 or visit the website at www.svdppdx.org. Parish donors make this assistance possible. Thank you.

Fr. Paul's Message

Dear Holy Redeemer:

Wallace Stegner once wrote: There is a sense in which we are all each other's consequence.

Christ beckons to come follow, to take up our cross daily and follow Him. That path is a path of consequence. We are being called to relate to Christ first, but in turn that makes our lives an extension of Him. This is at the heart of the Eucharistic feast. We become what we receive, in turn we serve as He would serve. This is not just an invitation to eternal life. Everyone is willing to say yes to that. It is an invitation to a life of consequence, a life that is deeply connected to all God's children. Therefore, as Christ felt compassion for us, gave his life for us while we were still sinners, we are called to do the same, give our lives in service for others, whether they deserve it or not. I will leave with a prayer. I did not write it, Mother Theresa took it from a Dr. Kent Keith and applied our Catholic understanding, I readily pray it often.

*People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered.
Forgive them anyway.*

*If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish ulterior motives.
Be kind anyway.*

*If you are successful, you will win some false friends and some true enemies.
Succeed anyway.*

*If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you.
Be honest and frank anyway.*

*What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight.
Build anyway.*

*If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous.
Be happy anyway.*

*The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow.
Do good anyway.*

*Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough.
Give the best you've got anyway.*

*You see, in the final analysis it is between you and God;
It was never between you and them anyway.*

Fr. Paul
